

To our valued Customers

End of lease relocating notice – Essendon Branch

McCanns Plumbing Supplies would like to inform you that due to the end of our lease agreement, we will be closing our Essendon branch and relocating all business to our Glenroy branch; the last day of trading being Friday 29th of April 2022.

We are pleased to announce that all of our loyal staff will be relocating to our Glenroy branch, enabling us to build a much bigger team to further compliment our service to all of our valued customers.

Our Glenroy branch has an extensive range of Plumbing and Building products, along with a huge modern showroom offering all of the latest products, ready to cater to all of your needs. There is also an abundance of off street parking.

We would like to thank all of our valued customers for your continued support over many years, and we look forward to servicing your needs for many more years to come.

McCanns for Strength, Trust and Professional Care

Kind regards

James Humphrey
